Members Of Court

This album is intrinsically intimate and solitary, but I did not create it alone. The support of my collaborators and my support system (my "legal team" and my "jury" in this court analogy) was essential in getting this album done and getting it to you. I would like to thank Brad Young, my producer. Without his patience, understanding, and vision, this album would never be what it is today. I would like to thank Patty Duffey. She was the visual mastermind of this album, helping me bring the aesthetics I've been dreaming up for this album to life. She was also essential behind the scenes, helping me navigate my first releases as my own manager. I would like to thank the wonderful people in my inner circle. They are the reason I'm still here to tell this story. I would like to thank you, my listeners. Thank you for receiving this story that means so much to me.
